

City Council
Lobbying Instructions

During the lobbying time, go out and talk with as many people as possible. If someone disagrees with you and tries to change your mind, listen to them, but also feel free to argue for your view.

Do not start to visit people until the Mayor says it is time to start lobbying.

When it is time for the final vote, you should feel free to vote how you really feel.